Desired Learning Outcomes

At the end of this CME event, participants should be able to:

- Maximize your scheduling potential, increase productivity, and improve access by leveraging existing resources and determining strategies for avoiding missed appointments and managing cancellations
- Implement methods to improve customer service including over-the-phone and face-to-face interactions with patients
- Acquire the knowledge, tools, and resources necessary to implement a SWOT analysis to aid in strategic planning and goal-setting for your practice
- Retire passive billing procedures and adapt proactive, patient-centric policies and options to increase collections without sacrificing patient care

Who Should Attend

Physicians with administrative responsibilities for their medical practice should attend this conference to learn strategies for better managing the practice. Practice managers/administrators are also encouraged to attend so that they can work with their physician(s) to implement these changes.
